INGREDIENTS

The ingredients contained in PRO ENERGY can be classified as adaptogens -energizers.

Each of them contributes to the improvement of energy in the body, acts synergistically and provides energy for better cellular respiration. The choice of ingredients is the result of intensive development in the field of amino acids effect on our organism. They can be expected to have a positive effect by supplying energy for metabolic processes in the body, when the mitochondria gain energy potential for improved cellular respiration processes with sufficient ATP production and with the subsequent optimization of biochemical processes.

PRO ENERGY is suitable for fatigue, loss of energy and increased physical or mental stress.
